January 2008 Newsletter

From the Chair of Pacific County Democrats

Next Meeting: The Pacific County Democrats will meet at the Seaview Transit Center, on January 14th at 7:00 PM.

Happy New Year for 2008. As we begin the new year, I would like to remind all Democrats of the importance of volunteering. This is a Presidential election year, with caucuses, the county convention, LD convention and State convention. Throw in the Crab Feed and all of the local elections, and it's going to be a busy year. Please consider volunteering to help with these endeavors. Let's keep Pacific County solidly Democratic. Also, start the new year off right by paying your club dues. These funds go toward supporting our local Democratic candidates and other club activities.

Community Meetings: Pacific County Sheriff John Didion will host a series of town hall meetings for residents and neighbors to discuss their concerns regarding the December 2 – 3, 2007 wind and severe storms.

The meetings are scheduled in various geographic areas of the county in an attempt to identify the needs and concerns of each. The schedule includes:

January 10, 2007 Peninsula Church Center 7:00 p.m.

January 11, 2007 Chinook Fire Hall 7:00 p.m.

January 14, 2007 Naselle High School 7:00 p.m.

January 15, 2007 South Bend Elementary 7:00 p.m.

January 19, 2007 Surfside @ Ocean Park Firehall 7:00 p.m.

January 22, 2007* Ocean Park Firehall 7:00 p.m. (tentative)

The Votes are in: The votes have been counted in a hotly contested race for the new club website format. The winner, a conservative blue with a bold yet understated look, promised to work with it's predecessor for a smooth transition. Construction to begin soon.

Presidential caucuses will be held on February 9th. Planning is well underway, although a few additional volunteers are needed at each site. There will be a sign up sheet at the monthly meeting. The next meeting for all PCO's and area coordinators is Saturday, January 26th, at 1:00 PM at the Seaview transit center

The Crab Feed has been scheduled this year for Saturday, March 15th, at the Community Center in South Bend. The tickets have been ordered and the price will be $25 each. This will be a big election year and there is a good chance we will see the Governor and some of our federal legislators as well as a full slate of County officials. Tickets will be on sale soon, but will go fast so get yours early. Don't miss this great opportunity to mix with your fellow Democrats and Legislators.
